Dear Chris,

1. Sorry, I was heavily asleep from my medications (clinically diagnosed as ICD10:F43 at battlefield fatigue level distress and anxiety every single day.) I am not normally awake until around 11.00.am
2. Sunday would be fine around 20.00.
3. Are there more details about the bike theft that I can supply by Email now ?
4. Can we also discuss the burglary and theft of my laptop and tablet computer please, These were reported to Cheshire police more than a year ago and has at least two crime numbers. . An officer discussed it with me around 6 months ago and said the investigating officer had gone off sick. The information about this is needed soon for three court cases in Chester: two cases in the Crown and one in the magistrates.
5. Can we also discuss the fraud and theft of my house. This was reported previously to Cheshire police but nothing has happened.
6. There is also the matter of a witness for these three Chester trials who will be in harms way for testifying against her abusers. We need advice on how to protect the witness from further harm.

regards,

Tom Dobbie
